

Status: 24.03.2025

Results of the “fit for participation” survey

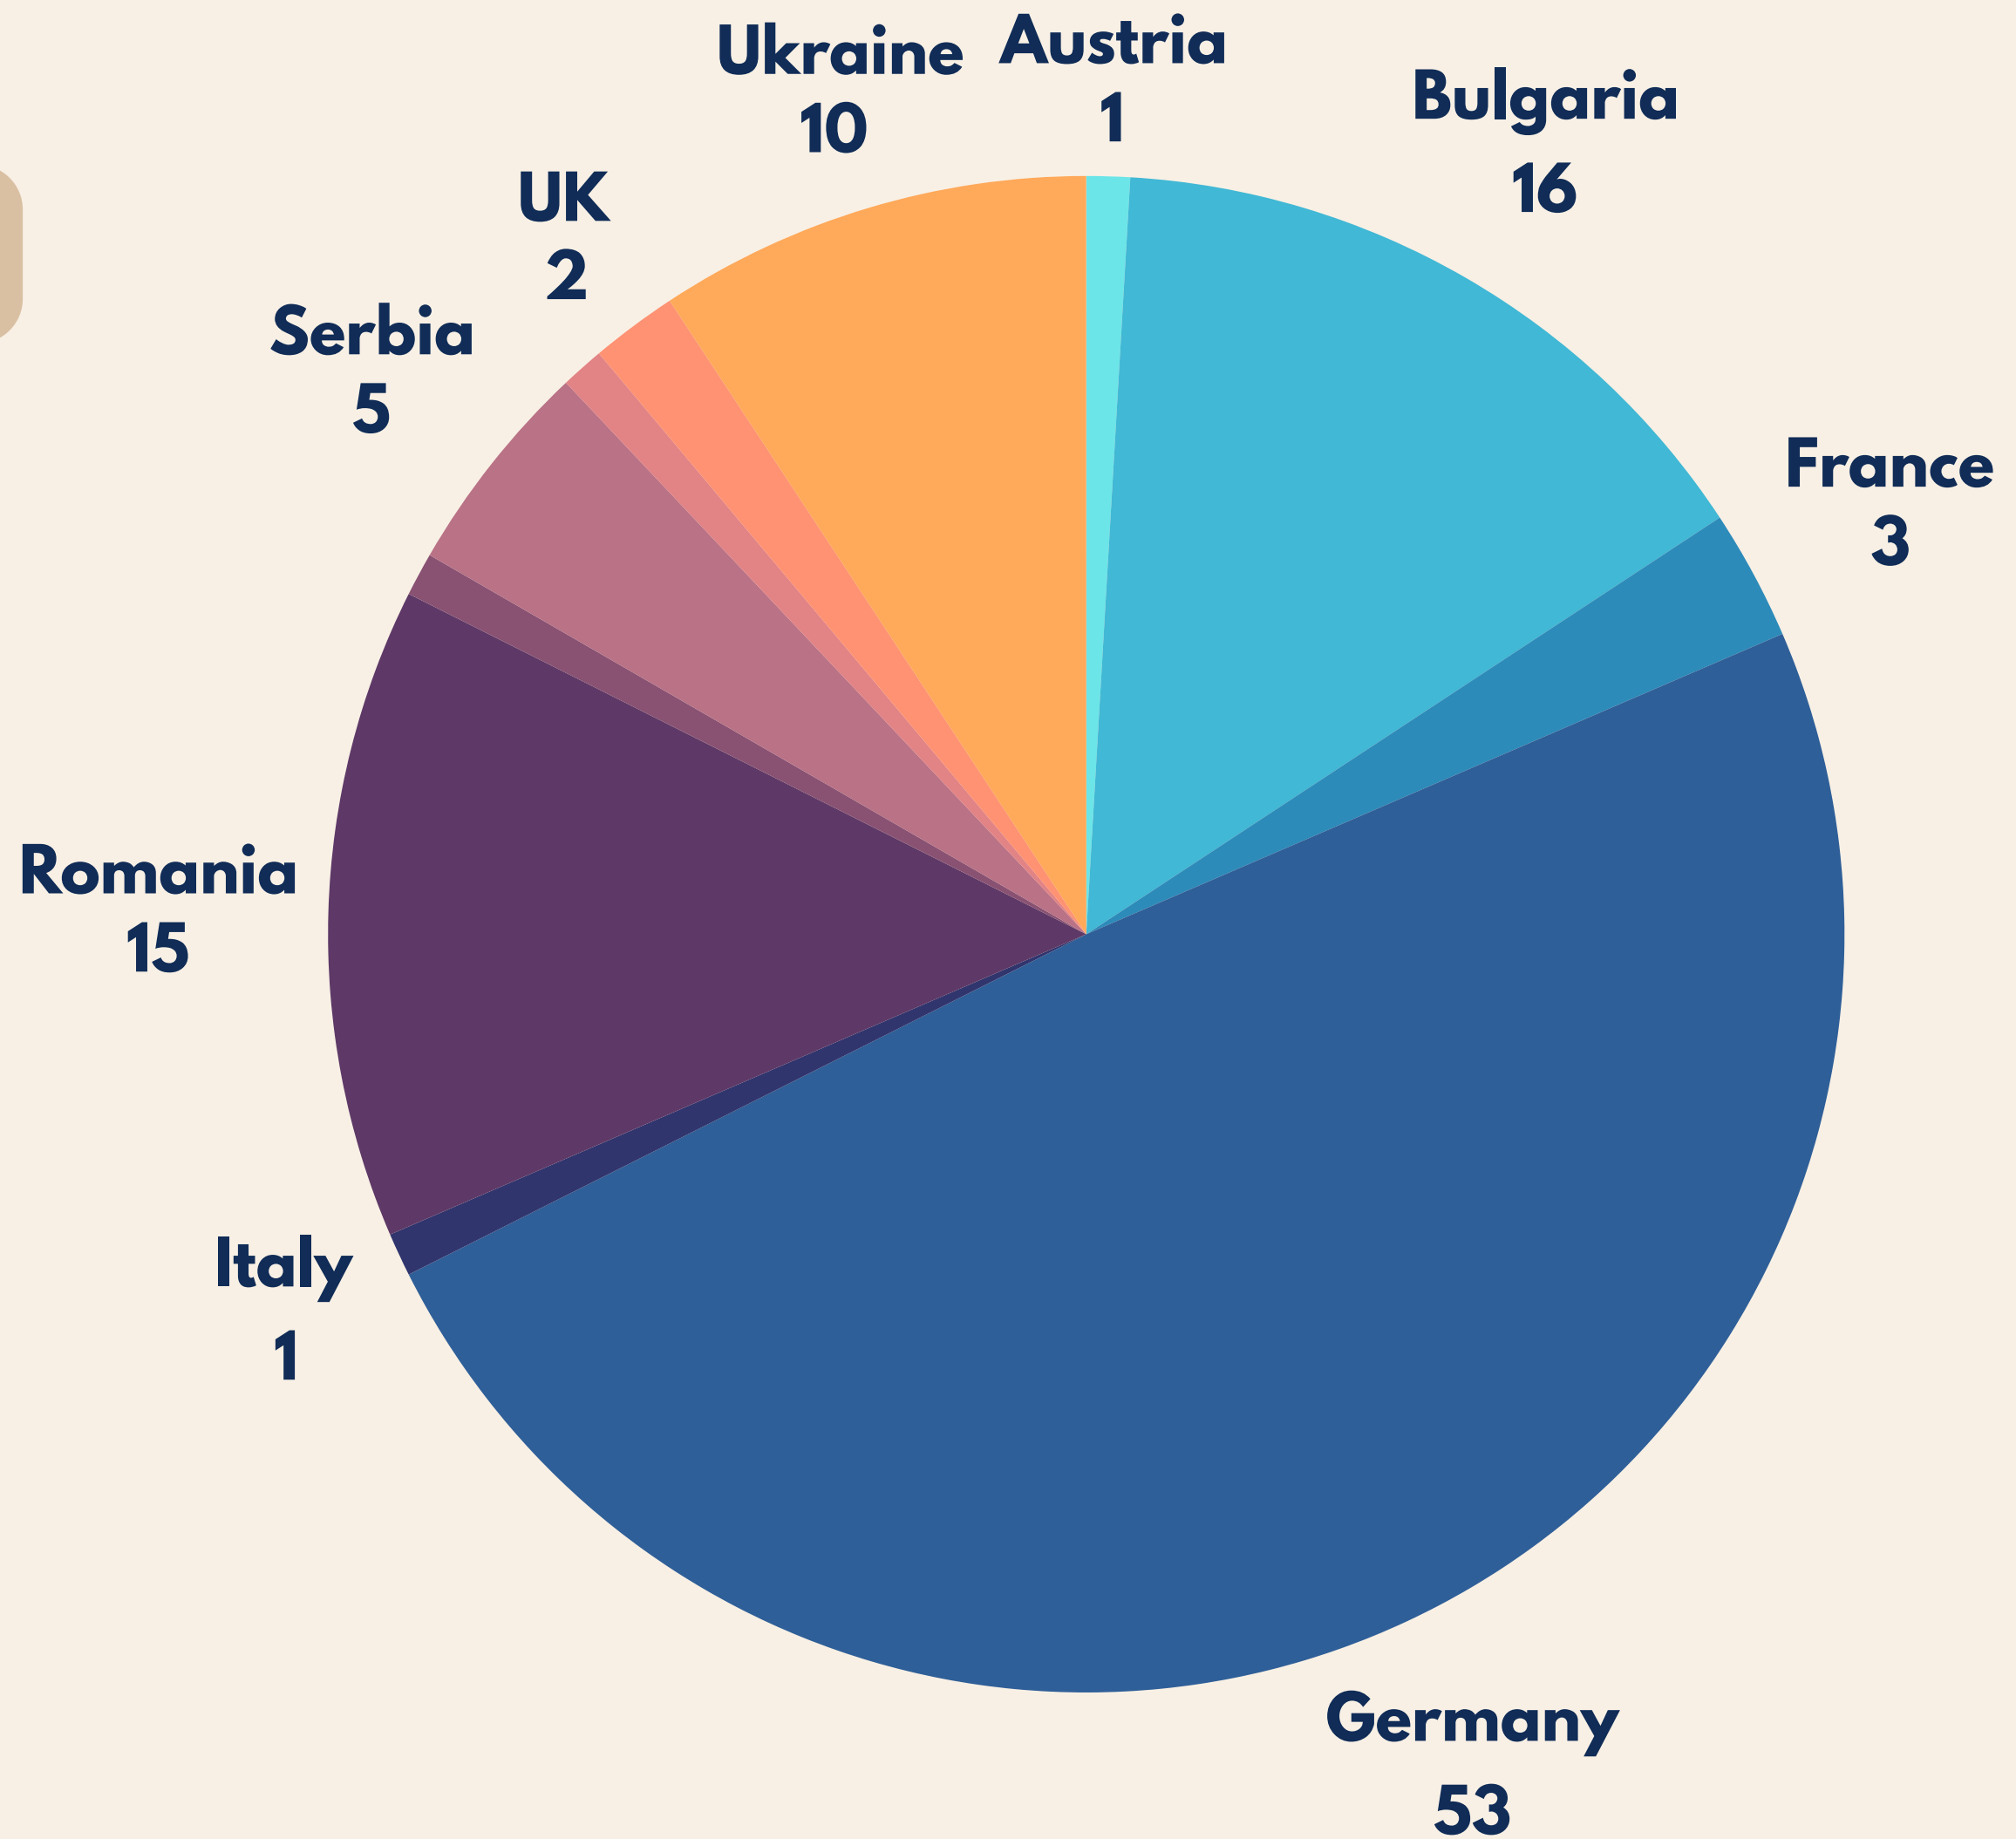

FRAME INFORMATION

114 participants

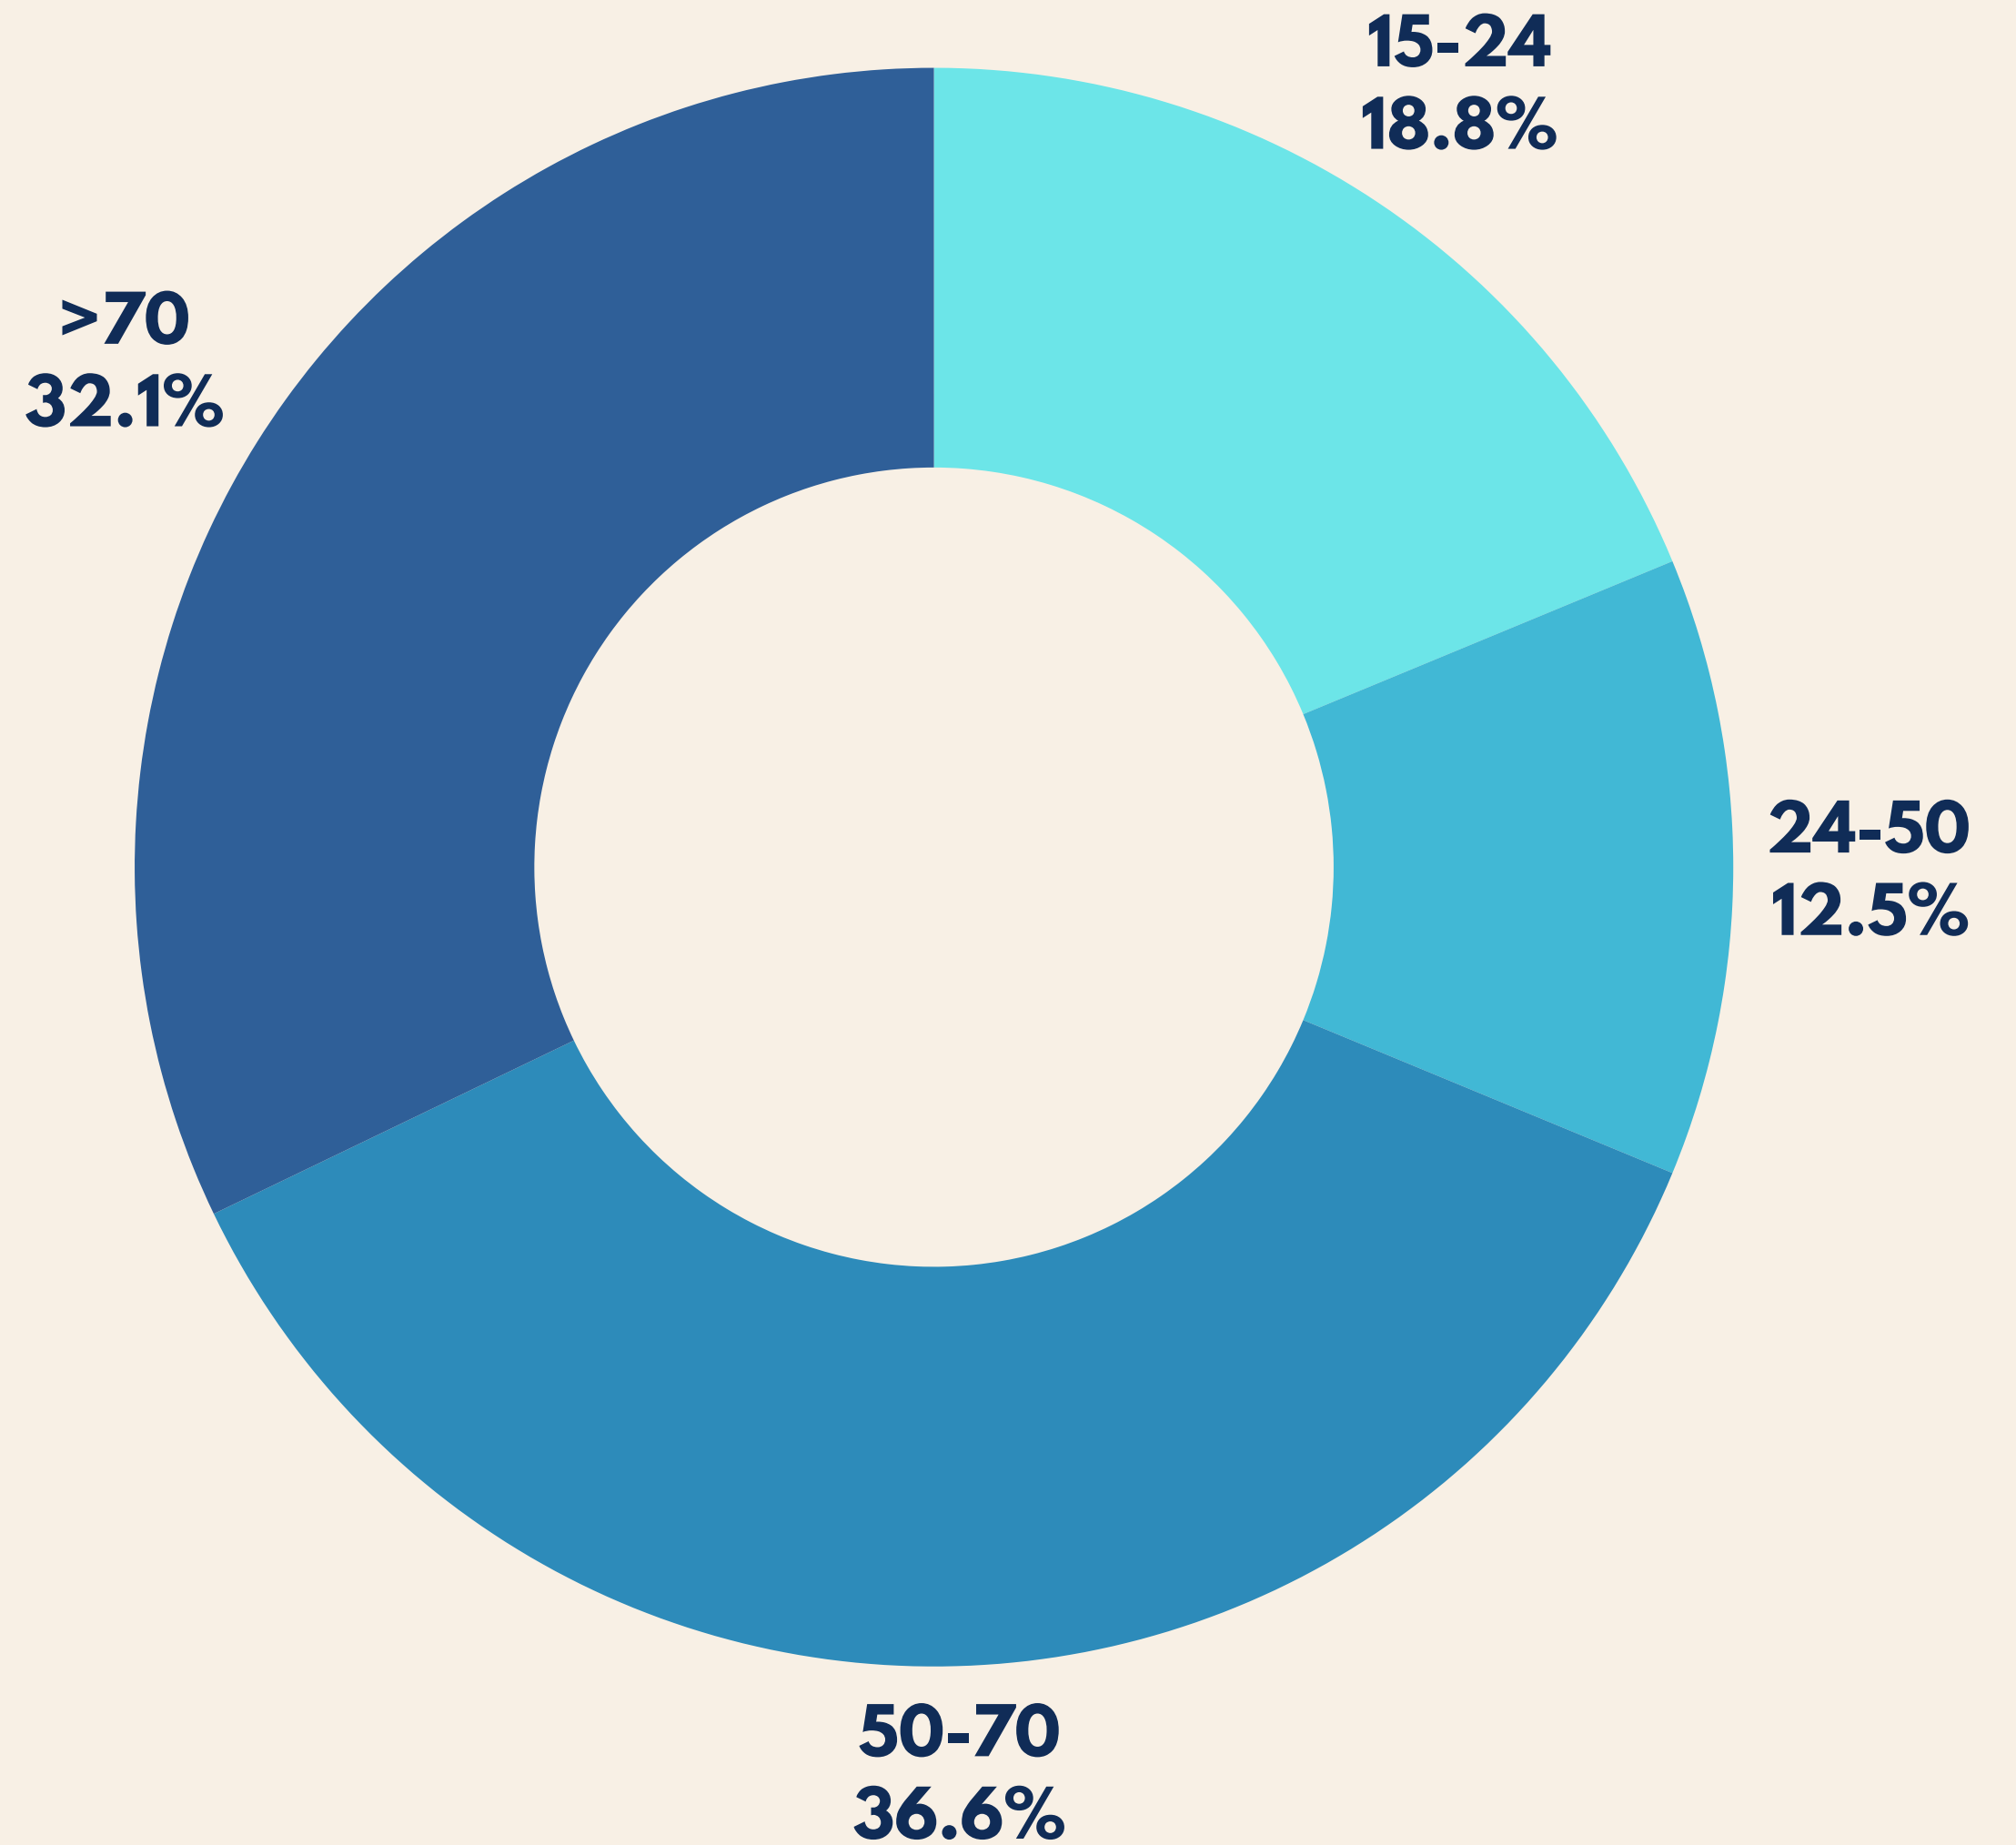

11 countries

2/3 interested to take part in the project

Which countries did the participants come from?

Age distribution

What does democracy mean to you?

Freedom and Rights

Responsibility and active participation

Stable and just government

Rule by the people

A set of humanistic values

Quotes from the survey

“[Democracy] is a living artwork where every individual contributes to shaping society. [...]”

Respect for different opinions

Freedom in daily life

Democracy in everyday life

Access to rights and legal protections

Elections and political participation

Quotes from the survey

“Democracy manifests itself in everyday life through various activities: joint projects, cooperation with other people, [...] exchanging opinions and creating new ideas...”

Demonstrations and protests

Public discussions

Referendums and elections

Participation

Petitions and public initiatives

Organizations and councils

...

What challenges for democracy are there?

Protecting rights and freedoms

Education

Citizen Engagement

Disinformation and Fake News

Corruption and Manipulation

Strong democratic institutions

Part 2: About the project...

Word cloud based on the responses

Why are people interested in the project?

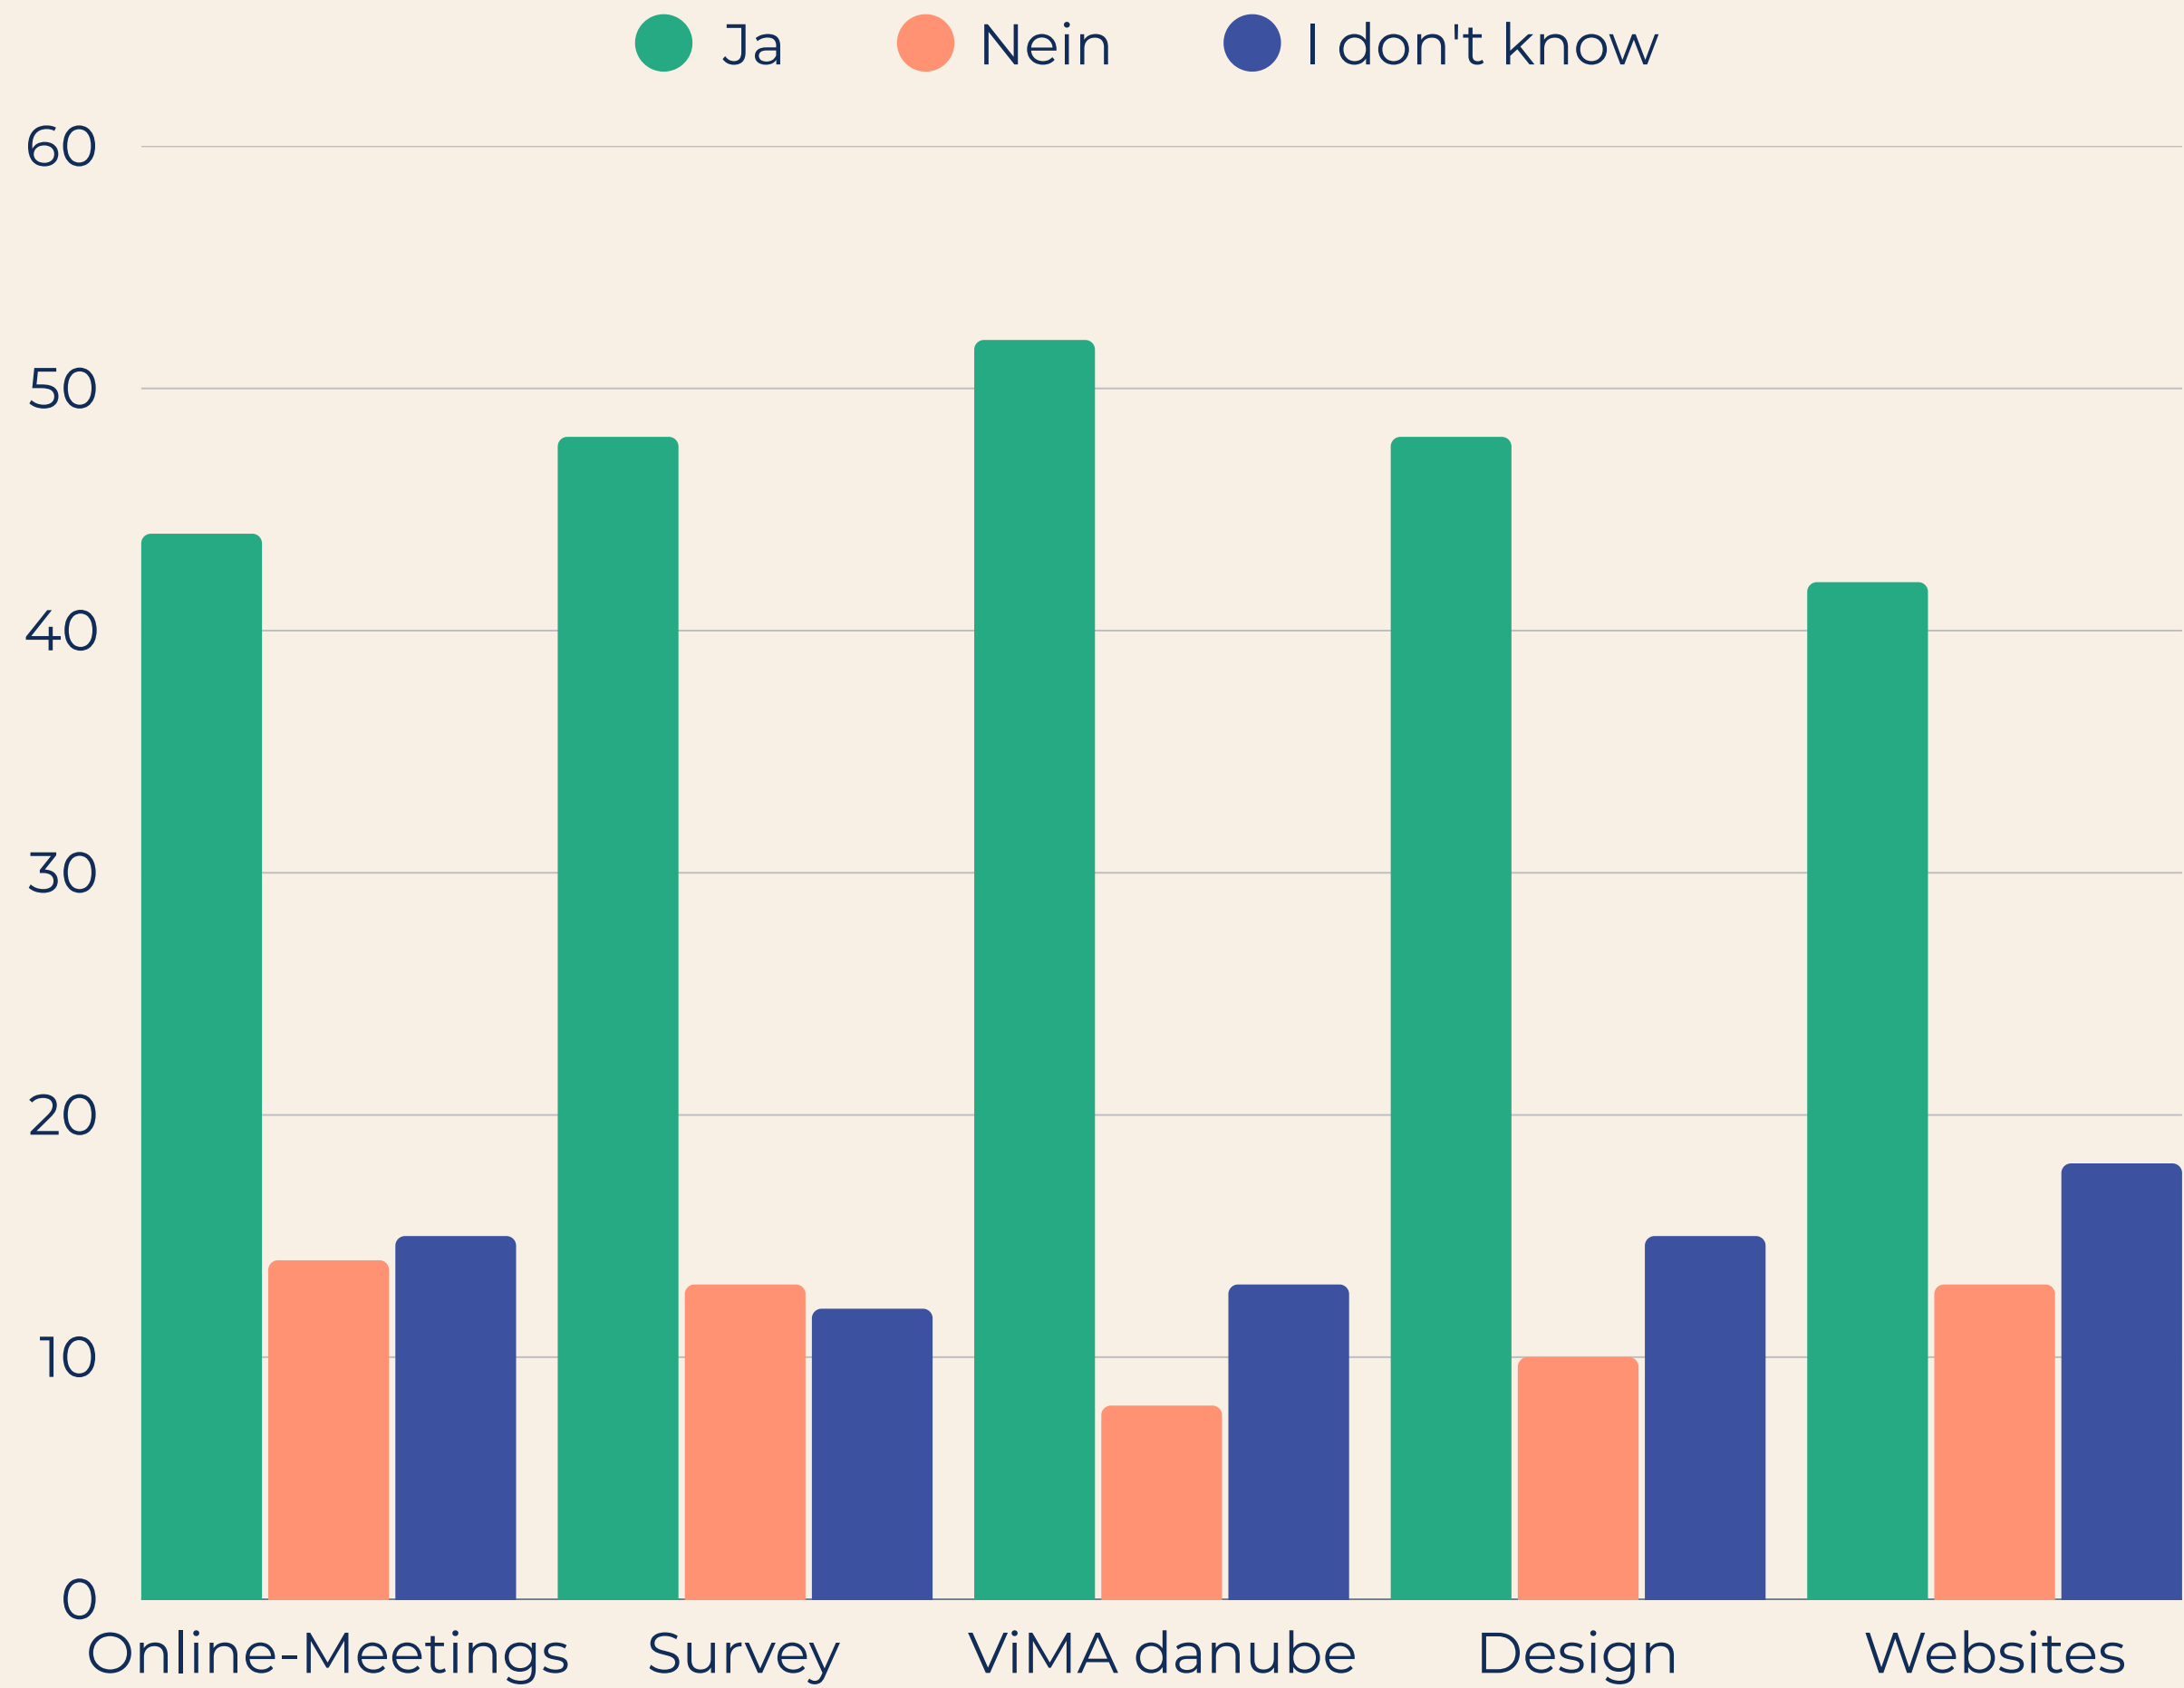

Interest in Democracy

Desire for More Political and Civic Engagement

Skill Development

General Curiosity

Interest in online courses

Thematic Interests

Protection from Disinformation

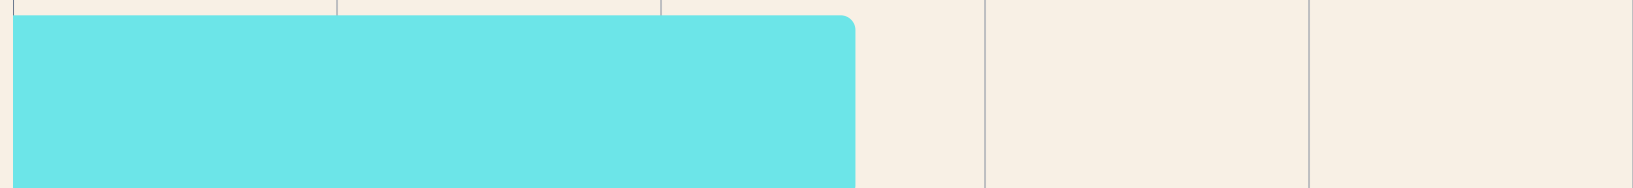

Debate Culture

Event Managment

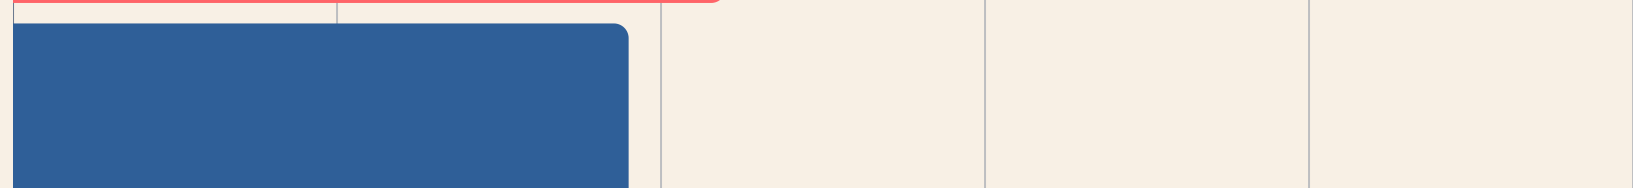

Internet Research

Project Funding

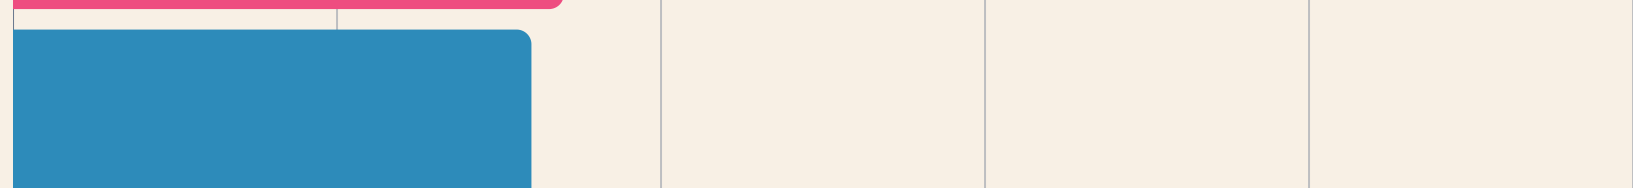

Conducting an Interview

Team Moderation

Data Protection

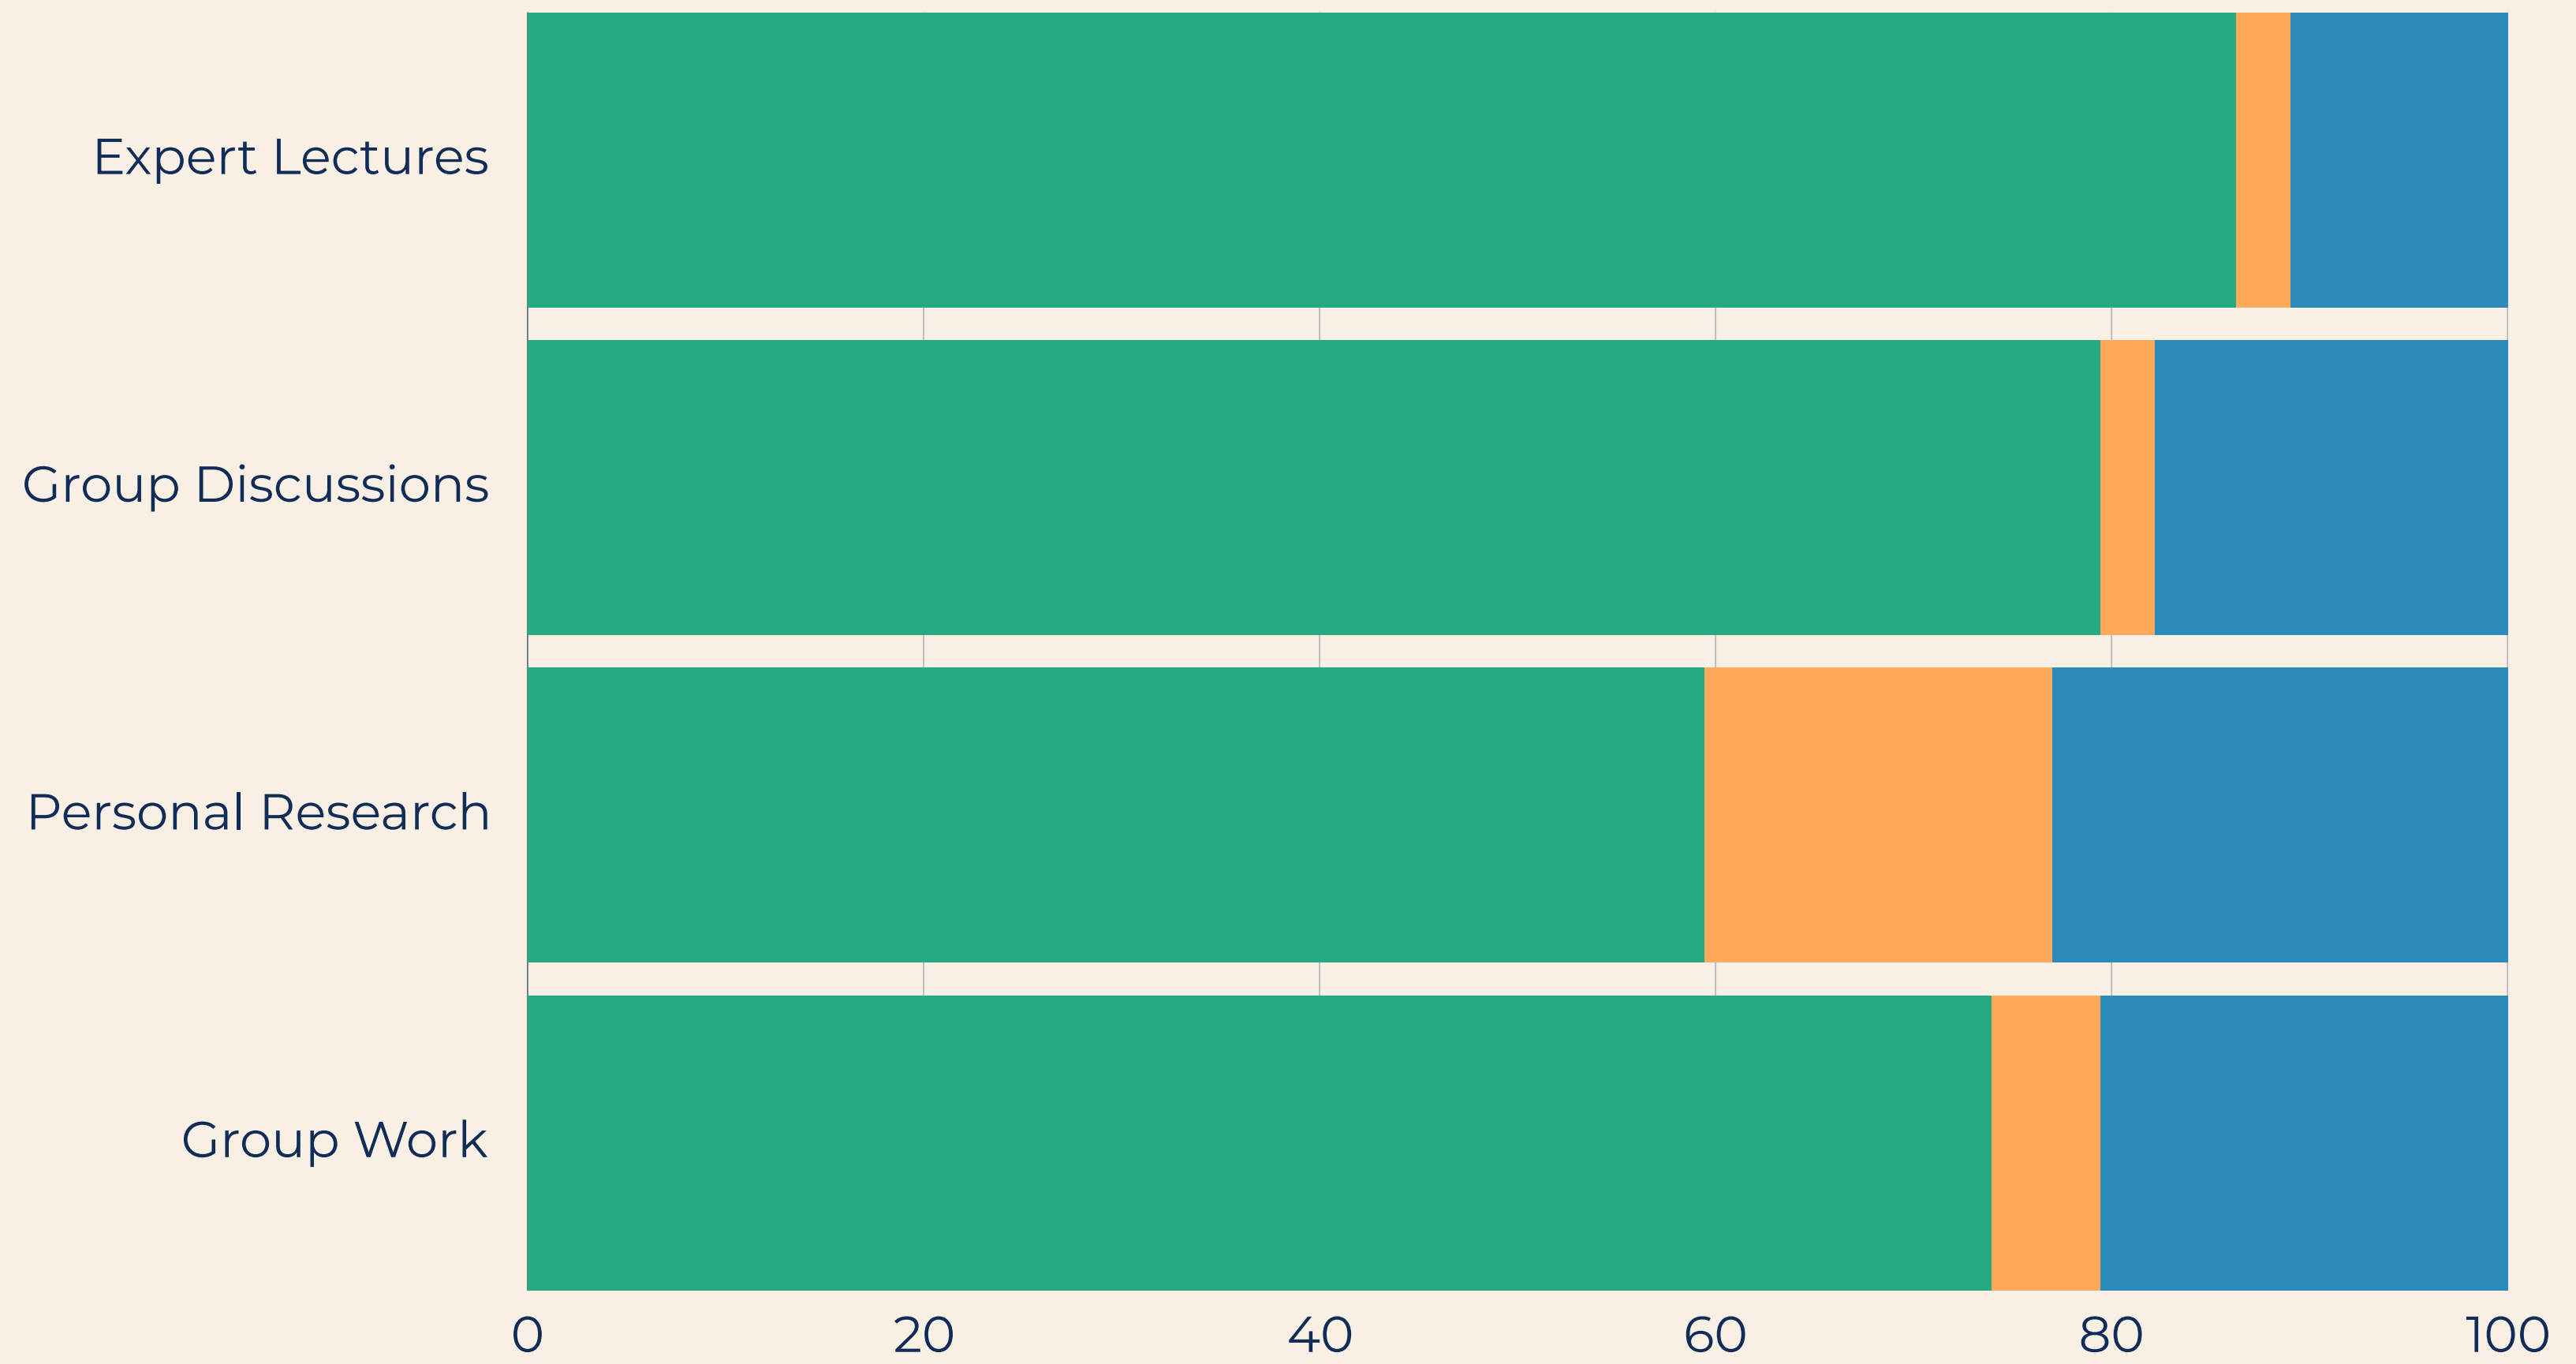

0 10 20 30 40 50

Further topic requests:

- Artificial Intelligence (AI)
- Translation tools
- Speaking and presenting to the public.
- Local participation opportunities
- ...

Possible Methods

● Yes ● No ● I don't know

Further ideas from the participants

- Debating
- Creating and presenting mini-projects
- Case studies and simulations
- Interviews
- ...

Thanks for your participation!